Prior Budgets and Audits

Reference Number: CTAS-1775
The prior year’s budgets and audits should be reviewed to establish a baseline of where your county has been; to gain a better understanding of what changes have taken place over the years; and what direction it would appear your county is going. Some budget preparers include additional information about the county debt service funds, and debt and capital management within the annual budgets.
Recommended Practice: Review prior year budgets and audits
