Types of Motions

Dear Reader:

The following document was created from the CTAS website (ctas.tennessee.edu). This website is maintained by CTAS staff and seeks to represent the most current information regarding issues relative to Tennessee county government.

We hope this information will be useful to you; reference to it will assist you with many of the questions that will arise in your tenure with county government. However, the Tennessee Code Annotated and other relevant laws or regulations should always be consulted before any action is taken based upon the contents of this document.

Please feel free to contact us if you have questions or comments regarding this information or any other CTAS website material.

Sincerely,

Incidental Motions—These motions are of no special rank, but yield to privileged motions meaning that if one of these motions is before the body and one of the privileged motions listed below is made, the privileged motion will have to be voted on or withdrawn before the body can proceed to consider these incidental motions. Otherwise, these motions are dealt with as they arise and take precedence over subsidiary motions.

Point of order (A member may interrupt the speaker who has the floor for this motion.); the chair deals with this motion.

Withdraw a motion                           | No             | No                     | No         | Majority (However no vote is taken unless there is an objection to the withdrawal.) |
Suspend the rules (To allow the county commission to violate its own rules; the rules should provide the method for "suspending the rules").
