Under the provisions of T.C.A. § 5-21-128, upon adoption of this optional general law, private acts relative to county finances, budgeting and purchasing in conflict with this 1981 act are suspended until such time as the provisions of the 1981 act are revoked. Therefore, this private act appears to be suspended.

SECTION 1. The county judge of Blount County shall appoint, with approval of the quarterly county court, a director of accounts and budgets who shall be a county employee. He shall be qualified by training and experience in the field of accounting to perform his duties in a proficient manner and in accordance with generally recognized principles of governmental accounting. Before assuming his duties he shall execute a corporate surety bond; the amount of which shall be established by the county judge at not less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). The bond shall be approved by the quarterly county court and shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds in the same manner as are the bonds of all county officials. The premium for such bond shall be paid from the county general fund.

The compensation of the director of accounts and budgets, which shall not be in excess of compensation allowed county officials in accordance with Sections 8-2402-8-2403, Tennessee Code Annotated, shall be set annually by the quarterly county court. The amount of such compensation, the compensation of such stenographers, typists, or assistants as he may need, and the other necessary expenses of his office shall be provided for by annual appropriation from the county general fund.

The director of accounts and budgets shall have power, in accordance with such regulations as may be established from time to time by the county judge, to appoint and remove his assistants, to prescribe their duties, and to fix their salaries within the limits of the annual appropriation.

SECTION 2. There shall be set up and maintained in the office of the director of accounts and budgets a system of fiscal procedure, control and centralized accounting, hereinafter set out and described, which shall be under the administrative control and direction of the director of accounts and budgets. Such system shall be conducted in full accordance with the general law of this state respecting the duties and responsibilities of the county judge as fiscal agent of the county.

The system of fiscal procedure, control and accounting herein provided shall conform to generally accepted principles of governmental accounting and shall be in substantial agreement with the recommendations of the national committee on governmental accounting.

The system shall include such records and procedures as may be required to reflect accurately the assets, liabilities, income, and expenditures of each fund of the county, together with such records, accounts and files as are necessary to record and control:

1. The transactions relating to county revenues, and the revenues for each of its several funds;
2. The transactions relating to the adopted budget and appropriations, including the expenditures and encumbrances against each item of appropriations;
3. The transactions relating to the bonded debt; and
4. Such other records as may be necessary to facilitate the operation of the adopted budget and the proper accounting for each item of county expenditure.

The director shall install, with the approval of the comptroller of the treasury, a uniform classification of accounts, including a classification of revenues and expenditures, to be used in accounting, budgeting, and financial reporting respecting all county funds, offices, agencies and activities of the county governments, with the exception of school funds administered by the county board of education and the county superintendent of schools, and shall prescribe the forms to be used by each official and employee of the county in connection therewith. The classification and expenditures and receipts of county school funds shall conform to the classification of accounts as prescribed by the state commissioner of education.

The director shall set up and maintain a double entry system of accounting for recording the transactions of all the county's funds, including both proprietary and budgetary accounts, in conformity with the requirements set out in Section 2. The accounts shall be kept on the modified cash basis.

The director shall set up the necessary accounts to properly record the annual budget and each appropriation made by the quarterly county court. All encumbrances, expenditures or other charges against any item of the budget shall be promptly recorded in order that the unencumbered balance of each item of the budget shall be readily ascertainable at all times.

At the end of each month the director shall prepare a comprehensive report of all revenues and expenditures of the county and of each of its several funds, departments, offices, agencies, and activities, all encumbrances against the several appropriations, and the condition of each item of appropriation in the annual budget. The most recent of such reports shall be presented to the quarterly county court at each quarterly meeting and copies of such reports shall be furnished the members thereof.

The director shall pre-audit all payrolls of the county before payment and shall maintain complete earnings records of each employee of the county. The director and the county judge are hereby authorized to maintain a special county payroll account at a local bank at the county seat, in which disbursement warrants for the total of each payroll may be deposited and against which individual net earning checks may be issued to each of the county employees. The county judge may authorize the issuance of such payroll checks on the signature of the director of accounts and budgets, and in such event the depository bank shall be so instructed.

SECTION 4. Excepting taxes such as the county trustee is authorized to collect, the payment of all moneys to the county trustee by any collectors authorized by statute, or by anyone on account due the county, shall be made only by issuance of a receivable warrant signed by the county judge instructing the trustee to receive the amount named, for which the trustee shall issue his receipt, duplicate of which shall be delivered to the director of accounts and budgets to be used by him in posting the accounting records.

SECTION 5. Before any obligation against the county shall be paid or any disbursement warrant or voucher issued therefor, a detailed invoice or statement approved by the head of the office, department or agency for which the obligation was made shall be filed with the director of accounts and budgets. Said director shall make a careful pre-audit of such invoice or statement, including a comparison with any encumbrance document previously posted or filed authorizing such obligation, and shall approve for payment only such items as appear to be correct, properly authorized, and not exceeding the otherwise unencumbered balance of the allotments or appropriations against which they are chargeable. Disbursement warrants shall be promptly prepared for all such approved items by the director of accounts and budgets and mailed or delivered to the payees thereof.

A duplicate copy of all disbursement warrants, with all original invoices and/or other supporting documents attached thereto, shall be kept on file in the office of the director of accounts and budgets.

SECTION 6. Each official, office, department, institution, agency, board, committee, commission or employee of the county shall furnish such information and make such reports as may be required to properly maintain the central accounting system and fiscal procedures herein authorized and prescribed, and such information and reports shall be furnished at such times and in such form as may be prescribed by the director of accounts and budgets.

The records of all county offices, departments, and agencies shall be made available by their respective officials or employees for examination at all reasonable hours by the director of accounts and budgets.

4. Acts of 1903, Chapter 117, was the first attempt to enact a stock law or fence law for Blount County. Subject to voter approval, this act provided that it was illegal for owners of livestock of any kind to allow their stock to run at large, and damaged landowners were given a lien on the wandering livestock to insure payment of damages. The fine of not less than $5 nor more than $10 for violation of this act was to be placed in the public school fund of Blount County.
5. Acts of 1903, Chapter 129, was an act to regulate fishing in Blount County, making it unlawful to catch fish by means of seining, trapping, shooting, grabbing with hands, gigging, poison or dynamite. The only lawful methods of fishing were by rod or line or trot line. This law was not applicable to private ponds, nor to fishing for minnows. Violating the provisions of this act would result in a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50, and if the violation involved the use of poison or dynamite, the guilty fisherman would spend six months in the county jail.
6. Acts of 1907, Chapter 195, was the next attempt to enact a stock law for Blount County. This act was amended by Private Acts of 1935, Chapter 255, to provide that snares, bait traps, steel traps, and dead fall could be set within the enclosure of a barn, chicken house or enclosed fields in which hogs or sheep were kept, as long as signs were posted giving notice to passersby that such traps has been set.

Chapter III - Bond Issues

Bond issues have been authorized by private legislation, but general law now has provisions covering bond issues needed by counties. Most of the private legislation authorizing counties to issue bonds, or to borrow money on short term notes, contained similar provisions. Generally, these common provisions concerned limitations on the rate of interest to be paid, the maximum number of years for the maturity period, and an additional tax levy for general obligation bonds, the proceeds of which were placed in a sinking fund and used to amortize the bonds and interest over the specified maturity period.

For many years the authority of counties to issue bonds was contained in many different chapters of Tennessee Code Annotated. Recently, the authority to issue bonds and notes has been consolidated in the Local Government Public Obligations Act of 1986, T.C.A. § 9-21-101 et seq. However, the older authority to issue bonds for school purposes remains in title 49, chapter 3 of Tennessee Code Annotated.

A listing of the acts which authorized various bond issues for Blount County is included below for reference purposes, although these acts are no longer current. Also referenced below are acts which repeal prior law without providing new substantive provisions.

SEC. 2. That the said Quarterly County Court of said counties shall be and is hereby authorized to issue interest bearing warrants and pay interest on same not to exceed six per cent (6%) for the purpose set forth in Section One of this Act and shall not at any time borrow money or issue warrants for said purpose unless the same is authorized in the budget adopted by the County Court either in regular or call session.

SEC. 4. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed and that this Act take effect from and after its passage, the public welfare requiring it.

Boundaries - Historical Notes

Boundaries

The private act has often been used as a means for transferring parcels of land from one county to another, often because the boundary lines would bisect an individual landowner's property, placing the landowner under the jurisdiction of two counties. This type of boundary change was often very general in its description of the land transferred, without any metes and bounds description. The following is a summary of acts which authorized boundary changes for Blount County.

1. Acts of 1812, Second Session, Chapter 60, authorized any sworn surveyor in Blount County, on application of John M'Cally to resurvey his land on Nails Creek and return a plat of the same, and the said M'Cally was entitled to a credit for any of the instalments he may have paid for said tract of land, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.
2. Acts of 1815, Chapter 200, extended Blount County from the junction of the Holsten and Tennessee Rivers across the Tennessee River to a point and bluff opposite the mouth of Town Creek; then southwardly on the Roane County line to the southern boundary of Tennessee, then east along the state line to where the Blount County line joins the same.
3. Private Acts of 1832, Chapter 64, directed John Mullendore from Sevier County and Robert Wier from Blount County to run the dividing line between the two counties.
4. Private Acts of 1833, Chapter 298, authorized the entry of land lying north of the Tennessee River, within the Hiwassee District, in the entry taker's office of Blount County.
5. Acts of 1839-40, Chapter 36, changed the dividing line between Sevier and Blount Counties so that it began at a point of the line on the top of "Round-top mountain, and running from thence a due south course to the line of North Carolina." This boundary change was repealed by Acts of 1849-50, Chapter 98.
6. Acts of 1843-44, Chapter 196, attempted to establish the County of Jones out of parts of Blount and Monroe counties, but the voters living in those sections rejected the plan and the County of Jones never came into existence.
7. Public Acts of 1877, Chapter 130, placed the lands of Charles F. Henley, J. L. Johnson and John B. McGhee in Monroe County, out of Blount.
8. Public Acts of 1883, Chapter 102, changed the boundary between Blount and Monroe counties, by placing the lands of M. P. Ray, R. E. McClain and C. S. McGhee in Monroe County.
9. Public Acts of 1883, Chapter 217, placed the lands of Samuel Montgomery and John Shedden in Blount County, out of Loudon County.
10. Public Acts of 1887, Chapter 51, changed the boundary between Blount and Sevier counties by placing the entire farm of M. G. Cresswell and W. G. Cresswell in Blount County.
11. Private Acts of 1901, Chapter 208, changed the line between Blount and Sevier counties by placing the land of Sam L. Pickens in Blount County.
12. Acts of 1903, Chapter 514, changed the line between Blount and Sevier to place all the lands of Hugh Gamble and Park P. Delozier in Blount County.
13. Private Acts of 1917, Chapter 816, placed the farm of James Gamble in Blount County, out of Sevier.
14. Private Acts of 1939, Chapter 303, transferred the fifty acre tract of land belonging to J. Ed Ogle from Blount to Sevier County, while the lands of Mattie E. Carr, Walter Ogle and E. H. Carr were transferred from Sevier to Blount County.
15. Private Acts of 1941, Chapter 458, changed the boundary between Blount and Sevier Counties, by transferring into Blount "that portion of land lying between the Stockard tract now owned by the Tipton brothers and the tract owned by J. T. Trotter, containing seventy-five acres, more or less."

16. Private Acts of 1953, Chapter 116, altered the boundary between Knox and Blount counties by transferring the fractional portion of the Elrod farm which was in Blount County into Knox County where the remainder of the farm was located.

The following acts constitute part of the administrative and political heritage of the educational structure of Blount County but are no longer operative since they have either been superseded, repealed, or failed to receive local approval. Also referenced below are acts which repeal prior law without providing new substantive provisions.

1. Acts of 1806, Chapter 8, incorporated Porter Academy as the county academy for Blount County, naming Gideon Blackburn, John Montgomery, John Lowry, Joseph B. Lapsely and Andrew Kennedy as the trustees of this academy.
2. Acts of 1813, Chapter 26, named William Aylett as an additional trustee of Porter Academy.

4. Acts of 1815, Chapter 67, authorized the trustees of the Maryville Female Academy and the Porter Academy to draft a scheme for raising not more than $8,000 by lottery.
5. Acts of 1817, Chapter 105, named James Turk and Thomas Henderson as additional trustees for Porter Academy, and as additional trustees for Maryville Female Academy Alexander McGhee, John McGhee, James Turk, Thomas Henderson, and John Lowry were named.
6. Public Acts of 1825, Chapter 73, appointed William Gott as commissioner in charge with the payment of money for the use of colleges and academies and to ascertain what portion of them may be of the third and last class and the value of all such lands that the academies may be on.
7. Public Acts of 1826, Chapter 34, amended Public Acts of 1825, Chapter 73, above, by re-appointing William Gott as commissioner. His duties remained the same.

9. Acts of 1855-56, Chapter 267, Section 9, required the comptroller of the treasury of the state to issue his warrants for the interest on the sum of $3,000, created as a school fund for the seventeenth civil district in Blount and Monroe counties, by Acts of 1853-54, Chapter 95.
10. Private Acts of 1897, Chapter 228, created a new school district out of parts of Monroe, Loudon and Blount counties which was known as the Trigon High School District.

11. Private Acts of 1901, Chapter 353, amended Private Acts of 1897, Chapter 228, by excluding the farms of James Norwood and S.O. Montgomery from the Trigonía High School District.
12. Acts of 1905, Chapter 356, created a special school district out of the ninth and nineteenth civil districts in Blount County, which were the town of Maryville. This was repealed by Acts of 1907, Chapter 286.
13. Acts of 1909, Chapter 236, was the first compulsory attendance law for Blount County students. This act required that children between the ages of eight and sixteen attend school for sixteen weeks or eighty days of each year, for at least four hours per day. There were certain exemptions from this act, such as proficiency in the subjects taught in public school, attendance at a private, parochial or tutorial school, or physical or mental infirmity. This act also made it a criminal offense for any person, firm or corporation to hire children of school age to work during school hours.
14. Private Acts of 1911, Chapter 248, established the Frigonía High School District out of parts of Blount, Loudon and Monroe counties. This act was amended by Private Acts of 1915, Chapter 665, to remove the applicability of its provisions to Blount County, but his amendment was itself repealed by Private Acts of 1917, Chapter 74.
15. Private Acts of 1911, Chapter 583, was the next compulsory attendance law for Blount County. This act required parents of children between the ages of eight and sixteen "to cause such child to be instructed in elementary branches of knowledge," for at least fifteen days in four consecutive weeks. Children who lived more than two and one half miles form the nearest public school were exempted from this law, and this act also specified that children could attend public schools in Blount County until they reached their majority.
16. Private Acts of 1913, Chapter 75, Extra Session, established the Meadow High School District out of parts of Loudon and Blount counties. While this act has never been specifically repealed, all special school districts which were not taxing districts, and the Meadow High School District was not, were abolished by Public Acts of 1925, Chapter 13, Section 33.
17. Private Acts of 1917, Chapter 508, established the Trigonía Independent School Districts in sections of Blount, Monroe and Loudon. The purpose of this act was stated as insuring that Blount County be a part of this special district, and that this act in no way repealed Private Acts of 1911, Chapter 248. However, Blount County was again removed from this special school district by Private Acts of 1919, Chapter 779.
18. Private Acts of 1927, Chapter 358, authorized a special tax levy of $.03 per $100 assessed valuation for a special high school fund. The board of education was authorized to issue short term warrants of not more than $25,000; and the funds from this special tax levy were to be used to retire those warrants.
19. Private Acts of 1929, Chapter 436, created a county board of school supervisors in Blount County, dividing the county into seven educational districts and providing for the election of a school supervisor from each district. The superintendent of public instruction was to serve as the ex-officio secretary of the board. This act was first amended by Private Acts of 1931, Chapter 356, which required the custodian of the county school buildings to perform the duties of truant officer, under the supervision of the county superintendent of public instruction. The boundaries of the seven school districts were changed by an amendment found in Private Acts of 1945, Chapter 378. Private Acts of 1949, Chapter 524, amended the original 1929 act to raise the salary of the board of school supervisors to $5.00 per day for each day's attendance at meetings of the board. The last amendment to the 1929 act was Private Acts of 1959, Chapter 262, which once again changed the boundaries of the seven school districts. Private Acts of 1929, Chapter 436, and all its amendatory acts were repealed by Private Acts of 1961, Chapter 60, which, as amended, may be found on the preceding pages of this volume.
20. Private Acts of 1929, Chapter 445, directed the county trustee to transfer to any municipal corporation in Blount County a pro rate share of the high school fund per student for any student living within one mile of the corporate limits of the municipality, provided that the students lived nearer to a city high school than to any county high school. This was amended by Private Acts of 1933, Chapter 208, to drop toe one-mile radius requirement, so that any high school student who lived nearer a city school than to a county school could attend the city school with the county reimbursing the city school system.
21. Private Acts of 1931, Chapter 358, authorized the trustee to transfer a pro rate share of school funds to municipalities for elementary students living within one mile of the municipality and closer to a city school than to a county school.

23. Private Acts of 1972, Chapter 243, would have amended Private Acts of 1961, Chapter 60, by providing for the apportionment of the membership of the Blount County Board of School Supervisors, however, according to the Blount County Clerk's Office, this act was never acted upon by local officials and therefore never became law.
24. Private Acts of 1987, Chapter 30, would have amended Chapter 60 of the Private Acts of 1961, as amended, relative to the election of the County Board of School Supervisors, but was not acted upon locally and therefore never became effective.
25. Private Acts of 1988, Chapter 122, would have amended Private Acts of 1961, Chapter 60, by dividing Blount County into educational districts and provided for the election of one person from each district to be on the county school board. This act was rejected by the county legislative body of Blount County and therefore never became effective.

Where intersections of any road are improved, the county shall pay one third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the cost thereof, and the balance shall be assessed against the property of the street improved and the intersecting street or streets for one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) a block in all directions according to the frontage thereof.

SECTION 14. In the event a petition be presented to the legislative body of Blount County averring the willingness of each of the signers to pay his or her pro rata share of the entire cost of any improvement such as is authorized by this act and relieve the county from the payment of any part thereof as to any road, or part or parts thereof, which petition is signed by all of the owners of the frontage of the lots or parcel of land abutting on such road or part or parts thereof, proposed to be thus improved, such petition may be granted by the legislative body; and thereupon proceedings may be had under this act, the same in all respects as if the improvement had been begun by the legislative body on its own initiative; and bonds may be issued and assessments shall be made, except that the assessments shall, in such event, be made for the entire cost of the improvement, and bonds may be issued for the entire cost instead of assessments being made and bonds being issued for only two thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the cost thereof; provided that no assessment under this section shall in any event exceed on any lot one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the assessed value of such lot for county taxes for the current year, and all other provisions of this act shall be applicable in respect of any improvement made under this section, except as in this section otherwise expressly provided.

SECTION 15. The cost of any improvement contemplated in this act shall include the expense of the preliminary and other surveys, the inspection and superintendence of such work, the preparation of plans and specifications, the printing and publishing of notices, resolutions required, including notice of assessment, preparing bonds, interest on bonds, and any other expense necessary for the completion of such improvement; provided, however, that the cost of any guaranty or maintenance of any work constructed under the terms of this act shall not be assessed against the property abutting on or adjacent to road or other ways improved.

SECTION 16.

(a) Before making any of the improvements contemplated in this act, the legislative body shall have the power to order the owners of all abutting real estate to connect their several premises with any utility lines, including water, sewer, electrical, telephone, or other, located in the roads adjacent to their several premises; and upon default of the owners for thirty (30) days after such order to make connection, the county may contract for and make the connection aforesaid, at such distances, under such regulation, and in accordance with such specifications as may be prescribed by the legislative body; and the whole cost of each connection shall be assessed against the premises with which the connection is made.

(b) Any number of such connections may be included in one (1) contract, and the cost thereof shall be added to the final levy or assessment made against the property of each lot owner, as hereinbefore provided.

SECTION 17.

(a) When the legislative body shall have completed such apportionment, the county clerk, or such person as may be designated by the legislative body of Blount County, shall publish a notice that the assessment list has been completed, and that, on a day named, which shall be not less than ten (10) days after the date of publication of the notice, the county legislative body will consider any and all objections to the apportionment that have been filed in the office of the county clerk or person designated.

(b) The notice shall further recite that the lists are in the office of the county clerk or person designated, and may be inspected within business hours and during the time specified by anyone interested.

(c) The notice shall also state the general character of the improvement and the terminal points thereof.

SECTION 18. All persons whose property it is proposed to assess for the cost of the improvement may at any time on or before the date named in the notice, and before the meeting of the legislative body, file in writing with the county clerk or person designated any objections or defense to the proposed assessment or to the amount thereof.

SECTION 19. On the date named in the notice, or at any day to which the meeting may be adjourned or to which consideration of the assessments and the objections thereto may be postponed, the legislative body shall hear and consider the assessment and objections thereto, and, after so doing, shall confirm, modify, or set aside the assessments as shall be deemed right and proper.

SECTION 20.

(a) If no objection to the pro rata or the amount thereof is filed, or if the property owners fail to appear in person or by attorney and insist upon the same, the assessment shall be confirmed and made final.

(b) Property owners who do not file objection in writing or protest against such assessment shall be held to have consented to the same and forever barred to attack the regularity, validity, or legality of such assessment.

SECTION 21.

(a) The confirmation and final action by the legislative body specified in Section 20 shall be done at a single meeting of the body.

(b) It is hereby declared that the provisions of the law in reference to the passage of resolutions shall not be applicable to the action of the bodies in levying such assessments, except that such levy or assessment shall be approved by the county executive, and in the event he refuses to approve or vetoes the levies or assessments, which he shall do as a whole, such levies or assessments shall be passed over his veto in like manner as resolutions are passed over such vetoes.

SECTION 22. When any owner or part owner of any of the lots of lands abutting on or adjacent to any road that is improved or about to be improved pursuant to the provisions of this act, and upon or against which lots or lands, levies or assessments have been made for the purpose of paying for such improvement, shall be aggrieved by the action of the legislative body of such county in confirming the levies or assessments made by the legislative body, such owner or person shall have right to appeal from the action of such legislative body to the circuit court of the county; provided the owner made objection or protest to the levies or assessments at the time provided for and appointed for objecting thereto, such appeal shall be perfected by filing with the clerk of such circuit court a petition setting forth the facts in regard to such levies and assessments and the irregularities or illegal acts in the making thereof; and such clerk and shall thereupon notify such county to deliver a copy of such levies or assessments, and all proceedings had in reference thereto, to the clerk of the circuit court, and such case thereupon be docketed for trial as other civil causes at law; provided, that the appeal of any individual shall in no wise affect the legality of such levy or assessment as to other property involved in the levies or assessments; and provided, further, that such appeal shall be perfected within thirty (30) days after the final action of the legislative body making such levies or assessments; and if not perfected within this time, the levies or assessments shall be regarded as final, and shall not be reviewed by certiorari, injunction, bills to quiet title or otherwise by any of the courts.

SECTION 23. If in any court any final assessment made in pursuance of this act is set aside for irregularities, omissions, or defects in the proceedings, then the legislative body of Blount County may, upon recommendation and notice as required in the making of an original assessment, make a new assessment in accordance with the provisions of this act.

SECTION 24. Any error, mistake of name, number of lot, amount, or other irregularity may at any time be corrected; and no such levy or assessment shall ever be declared void or invalid by reason thereof, but the person aggrieved may have the same corrected by application to the legislative body of such county.

SECTION 25.

(a) After the legislative body shall have levied the assessments against the property abutting upon such road, the county clerk or person designated shall deliver such assessments to the Blount County trustee, who shall enter same in a well bound book, styled "Special Assessment Book," which book shall be so ruled as to conveniently show:

1. Name of owner of such property;
2. The number of lot or part of lot and the plan thereof, if there be a plan;
3. The frontage of the lot and the depth thereof;
4. The amount that has been assessed against such lot;
5. The amount of such installment and the date on which installment shall become due.

(b) The book shall be indexed according to the names of the owners of the property and according to the names of the roads that have been improved.

SECTION 26. The special assessment book heretofore referred to shall be a book or original entries for any and all purposes, and certified copies thereof shall be competent evidence in all cases in all the courts.

SECTION 27.

(a) All such assessments shall constitute a lien on the respective lots or parcels of land upon which they are levied, superior to all other liens except those of the state and county, for taxes.

(b) The enforcement by the state, and county of their liens for taxes on any lot or parcel of land upon which has been levied an assessment for any improvement authorized by this act shall not operate to discharge or in any manner affect the county's lien for such assessment; however, a purchaser at a tax sale by the state or county of any lot or parcel of land upon which the assessment has been levied shall take the same subject to the lien of such assessment, and if bought by the state, any conveyance of the title thus acquired or any redemption shall be subject to the lien of such assessment.

SECTION 28. The tax collector shall issue his receivable warrant to the individual or owner desiring to pay any of the assessments, which amount shall be paid to the trustee of the county as other taxes of the county are now paid.

SECTION 29. All assessments levied by virtue of this act shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days after the assessment is made final; but at the election of the property owner, to be expressed by notice as hereinafter provided, the assessment may be paid in five (5) annual installments, and shall bear interest at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum, interest payable semiannually.

SECTION 30.

(a) A property owner desiring to exercise the privilege of payment by installments shall, before the expiration of such thirty (30) day period, enter into an agreement in writing with the county that, in consideration of such privilege, he will make no objection to any illegality or irregularity with regard to the assessment against his property, and will pay the same, as required by law, with the specified interest.

(b) Such agreement shall be filed in the office of the county clerk or person designated by the county.

SECTION 31. In all cases where such agreement has not been signed and filed within the time limited, the entire assessment shall be payable in cash, without interest, before the expiration of such thirty (30) days.

SECTION 32. Any property owner who shall have elected to pay his assessments in five (5) annual installments shall have the right and privilege of paying the assessment in full at any installment period by paying the full amount of the installments, together with all accrued interest, and an additional sum equal to one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) the annual interest thereon.

SECTION 33. If any property owner makes default in the payment of any installment and interest thereon, all the installments, with interest, and an additional sum equal to one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) the annual interest, shall become immediately due and payable.

SECTION 34.

(a) Whenever any installments of any assessments shall become past due for a period of sixty (60) days, it shall be the duty of the county trustee to certify the installment and all other installments of the same assessment to the county attorney whose duty it shall be to immediately enforce the collection of the installment or installments, by attachment levied upon the lot or parcel of ground upon which such assessment was levied. In case of any such delinquency, attachment shall be sued out and the lien thereunder enforced in chancery court.

(b) Any land so attached may be sold in the attachment proceedings in bar of the equity of redemption and all other rights, legal or equitable, belonging to the owners of the land.

SECTION 35. Whenever such proceedings are taken by Blount County as shall result in the sale of any lot of ground to pay any installment or installments of such levies or assessments, the county executive shall have the right to bid at such sale up to the amount of all of the assessments that are outstanding against the property; and if the property is struck off the county executive, the title thereof shall be taken in the name of the county; and the county executive shall thereafter have the power to execute a quitclaim deed of such county to any individual who shall tender in consideration thereof the amount of such special assessments that may have been levied against such property, together with all costs, interest, or charges that may have been incurred in the effort to collect such assessments.

SECTION 36. Blount County shall have the authority and power to borrow money for the purpose of making payments for the improvements herein contemplated in anticipation of realization of funds, either by the sale of bonds or special assessment; and such county if further authorized to make payments out of any funds on hand or such funds as may be available for either that portion of the work to be assessed against the abutting property owner or to be paid by the county itself; provided, further, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the county affected hereby from making payment of the entire cost of such improvements out of any funds which may be provided or available for such purposes.

SECTION 37. The provisions of this act shall be additional and supplemental to the powers conferred by other laws and the county may take advantage of any of the rights, powers, and authority conferred by such laws.

SECTION 38. This act shall have no effect unless it is approved by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the legislative body of Blount County. Its approval or nonapproval shall be proclaimed by the presiding officer of the legislative body and certified by him to the Secretary of State.

SECTION 39. For the purpose of approving or rejecting the provisions of this act, it shall be effective upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it. For all other purposes, it shall become effective upon being approved as provided in Section 38.

Highways and Roads - Historical Notes

Road Law

The following is a listing of acts which once had some effect upon the county road system in Blount County, but which are no longer operative. Also referenced below are acts which repeal prior law without providing new substantive provisions.

1. Acts of 1801, Chapter 70, made it unlawful to obstruct highways or roads in Blount County, and also provided the same penalty for obstructing navigation of the Little River from its mouth to Bradley's Mill.
2. Private Acts of 1822, Chapter 212, authorized John Houston and others of Blount County to open a turnpike road.
3. Public Acts of 1823, Chapter 250, appointed three persons to examine a dam built by Jehu Stephens across the Little River in Blount County.
4. Private Acts of 1829-30, Chapter 178, authorized Daniel D. Foute of Blount County to open a turnpike road.
5. Private Acts of 1831, Chapter 35, authorized Daniel D. Foute of Blount County to open a turnpike road of six miles up the Tennessee River to intersect the turnpike of Callaway and Parsons.
6. Private Acts of 1831, Chapter 114, authorized Thomas Tipton and Zachariah Clarke to open a turnpike road from Crooked Creek through the mountains by way of Cade's Cove to the Equanuckly Gap, then down Eagle Creek to intersect with the Macon, North Carolina road.
7. Private Acts of 1833, Chapter 276, authorized Joseph Estabrook, Issac Anderson and others to open a turnpike road in Blount County from Tuckaleechee Cove to Briar Knob in the Smoky Mountain.
8. Acts of 1837-38, Chapter 34, authorized the county court to appoint three commissioners to operate the turnpike road which had been built by Joseph Estabrook and John Anderson.
9. Acts of 1851-52, Chapter 241, authorized Daniel Foute to open a turnpike road from either Six Mile or Crooked Creek in Cade's Cove to E. Kannett's gap at the North Carolina line.
10. Public Acts of 1883, Chapter 208, authorized Blount County, through its quarterly county court to build turnpikes or macadamized roads with the labor of workhouse hands and to charge such tolls as might be set by the quarterly county court.
11. Acts of 1903, Chapter 47, was the first general road law for Blount County. This act authorized the quarterly county court to appoint three commissioners, who were to employ engineers and other necessary personnel for classifying and inspecting the public roads of the county. These commissioners were to report back to the court the roads upon which improvements should be made, and then the commissioners were to oversee the improvements authorized by the quarterly county court. This act also contained a provision for the levying of the first road tax in Blount County, to finance these road improvements.

12. Acts of 1909, Chapter 268, provided that the county court was to appoint a road commissioner for each civil district of the county. These road commissioners were to serve two year terms and were authorized to appoint a district overseer to assist them in supervision of construction and repair of the roads in each civil district. This act also contained provisions for a road tax and for road duty.
13. Acts of 1909, Chapter 282, was the second road law passed for Blount County in that legislative session. This chapter contained the same provisions as Acts of 1909, Chapter 268, and in addition, the act also set the classifications and standard for classifications of the public road system in the county.
14. Acts of 1909, Chapter 473, was the third road law passed for Blount County in that year, and its provisions were identical to Acts of 1909, Chapter 282.
15. Private Acts of 1911, Chapter 282, regulated the working and laying out of public roads in Blount County, which included the election of a road commissioner, road tax and the classification of the roads into four classes.
16. Private Acts of 1911, Chapter 473, regulated the working and laying out of public roads in Blount County which included the election of a road commissioner, road tax and the classification of the roads into four classes.
17. Private Acts of 1919, Chapter 239, authorized the Blount County Quarterly Court to appropriate out of the county general fund an amount up to $5,000 to be used for improving the roads.
18. Private Acts of 1919, Chapter 777, was the next general road law for Blount County. This act created the office of public road supervisor, to be filled by appointment of the quarterly county court for terms of two years. The court was also authorized to appoint a road commissioner from each civil district, also to serve two year terms. This act also contained provisions for a road tax and road duty.
19. The 1919 road law apparently was not very favorably received by the Blount County citizens since another road law was enacted at the next legislative session in Chapter 20 of the Private Acts of 1921. Under this act, the county court would appoint a road commissioner from each civil district in the county, who would have supervision of all public roads, bridges, and highways in his district. He was also authorized to appoint an overseer of road duty in his district, though this act did allow for commutation of road duty by payment of an additional road tax.
20. Private Acts of 1925, Chapter 55, created a three member highway commission, to be elected by the quarterly county court for staggered terms of two years each. The highway commission was authorized to hire a county road supervisor, or civil engineer, or both. This act also divided the county into road districts which were co-extensive with civil districts, with the highway commission to appoint overseers for each road district. Like other road laws, this one contained provisions for a road tax levy and road duty by certain male citizens of the county. This act was amended by Private Acts of 1927, Chapter 703, which transferred all the duties of the county road supervisor to the highway commission. Both of these acts were repealed by Private Acts of 1931, Chapter 357, which enacted the next road law for Blount County.
21. Private Acts of 1931, Chapter 357, provided that the county road department in Blount County would be controlled by a county highway commission of three members, to be elected by the voters for a term of six years. This commission was authorized to expend all monies received by Blount County from the state gasoline tax, to the needed construction and improvement of the county road system and to employ a competent attorney and civil engineer as needed by their department. Private Acts of 1937, Chapter 550, amended this 1931 road law to provide that the quarterly county court had the authority to remove any member of the highway commission, after a five-day notice of charges prior to a hearing, for inefficiency, neglect of duty, misfeasance in office, moral turpitude or wilful misconduct. Private Acts of 1939, Chapter 302, also amended the road law found in Private Acts of 1931, Chapter 357, to reduce the terms of the highway commissioners to two years. Private Acts of 1945, Chapter 255, was another amendment, raising the salary of the Highway commissioners to $2,000 per annum.
22. Private Acts of 1947, Chapter 300, was the next road law for Blount County which provided for a county highway commission to be elected by the quarterly county court for staggered terms of two years. This three member highway commission was to appoint a superintendent of highways, who was to serve at the "pleasure of the Highway Commission." This act also set up certain road classifications, but unlike most county road laws, this one did not include a provision authorizing a tax levy. This act was only amended once, by the Private Acts of 1951, Chapter 321, which provided that the highway commission was to be elected from three designated road zones by the voters in those zones.

23. Private Acts of 1963, Chapter 223, was a proposed amendment to the current Blount County road law, which would have provided that the county road superintendent be elected by the voters for a term of four years. This amendment was rejected by the quarterly county court and therefore never became part of the operative law.

Chapter XII - Taxation

Most of the general law on taxation can be found in title 67 of Tennessee Code Annotated. The chief revenue source for county government is the ad valorem tax on real and personal property. The statutes dealing with the county property tax, including assessment, levy, collection, and enforcement, are found in title 67, chapter 5. Assessments are reviewed by the county board of equalization, which is covered by title 67, chapter 5, part 14. Another large source of county revenue is the local option sales tax. The authority for the local option sales tax is codified at T.C.A. title 67, chapter 6, part 7. While the property tax may be levied by the county legislative body alone, the local sales tax must be approved by the qualified voters in a referendum. Other general law granting taxing authority for counties may be found in other sections of the code. These may be found through use of the combined general index to the Tennessee Code Annotated. In some areas private acts may be used for authority to levy a tax at the county level. The revenue sources available to county governments, and the authority for such taxes and fees either in general law or private acts, are summarized in the CTAS publication County Revenue Manual.

The following is a listing of acts pertaining to taxation in Blount County which are no longer effective. Also referenced below are acts which repeal prior law without providing new substantive provisions.

1. Acts of 1797, Chapter 7, authorized the Blount County tax levies for the years of 1798 and 1799, of not more than $.50 on each "free poll", $1.00 on each "black poll," $.50 on each one hundred acres of land, and $1.00 on each town lot. This act also authorized the levy of each stud horse a tax of not more than "one quarter of the price of the season of one mare."
2. Private Acts of 1911, Chapter 71, authorized a special tax levy to be used to meet payments due on any bona fide accumulated outstanding liabilities of the county, which had been necessarily accrued in preceding years.
3. Private Acts of 1917, Chapter 632, authorized a special tax levy of not more than $.20 on each $100 for grading, macadamizing, and improving the public roads in Blount County.
4. Private Acts of 1919, Chapter 766, authorized a special tax levy in Blount, Loudon and Roane counties of not more than $.20 per $100 assessed valuation for improving roads in those counties, and connecting them with each other, to form a more uniform road system.
5. Private Acts of 1977, Chapter 103, repealed Acts of 1909, Chapter 73, which was the legal authority for the counties, whose 1900 population or subsequent population was no less than 60,000 and no more than 100,000, to levy a general property tax whose proceeds would be used to maintain free public libraries in their respective counties. Blount County was among those affected by this law but according to our information at the time of these updated issues of private acts the county court of Blount County had not acted upon this act, thus rendering the same of no effect until the court did approve of it.
6. Private Acts of 1982, Chapter 360, would have amended Private Acts of 1979, Chapter 102, by levying a privilege tax of 5% on hotel or campground by a transient, however, this act was found unconstitutional by the attorney general of the state.
7. Private Acts of 1988, Chapter 169, would have amended Private Acts of 1979, Chapter 102, printed herein, but was not ratified locally and therefore never became law.

SEC. 2. That before any deed or other instrument which conveys or purports to convey the title in fee simple to any real estate shall be recorded it shall be the duty of the County Tax Assessor to examine the same and ascertain if the property described in said deed or instrument has been and is correctly assessed.

An operator shall be liable for interest on such delinquent taxes from the due date at a rate of eight (8%) per annum, and in addition shall pay a penalty on such taxes of one percent (1 %) for each month or fraction thereof that such taxes are delinquent. Such interest and penalty shall become a part of the tax herein required to be remitted.

(b) Each occurrence of knowing refusal of an operator to collect or remit the tax or knowing refusal of a transient to pay the tax imposed is a separate violation of this act and may result in the imposition of a civil penalty, to be imposed separately for each violation, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) upon a finding of such knowing refusal by a court of competent jurisdiction. As used in this section, "each occurrence" means each day.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the county clerk or other authorized collector of the tax from pursuing any civil remedy available to the collector by law, including issuing distress warrants and the seizure of assets, to collect any taxes due or delinquent under this act.

Section 7. It is the duty of every operator liable for the collection and payment of any tax imposed by this act to keep and preserve for a period of three (3) years all records necessary to determine the amount of such tax, which records the tax collection official shall have the right to inspect at all reasonable times.

Section 8. In administering and enforcing the provisions of this act, the tax collection official shall have as additional power the powers and duties with respect to collection of taxes provided in Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 67, or otherwise provided by law. Upon any claim of illegal assessment and collection, the taxpayer shall have the remedy provided in Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-1-911, it being the intent of this act that the provisions of law which apply to the recovery of taxes illegally assessed and collected shall apply to the tax collected under the authority of this act; provided, the tax collection official shall possess those powers and duties as provided in Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-1-911, with respect to adjustment and settlement with taxpayers of all the errors of taxes collected by the tax collection official under the authority of this act and to direct the refunding of same. The board of directors shall be comprised of ten (10) directors, who shall be selected as follows and as provided in Section 11:

The board shall provide to each governing body the initial terms assigned to each director. The term of a director is renewable, subject to reappointment as provided in Section 11.

Section 11. The directors selected by the municipalities pursuant to subdivisions (1), (2) or (3) of Section 9 or by the Blount County Chamber of Commerce pursuant to subdivision (4) of such Section shall become directors of the authority without any further action by the municipalities, and upon any vacancy in the office of any such director, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the appropriate entity. Except for the foregoing directors, the directors of the board shall be jointly elected by the governing bodies of the municipalities as provided in this Section 11. Upon the initial election of these directors, upon the appointment or reappointment of a director following the conclusion of a term in office, or upon any vacancy in term of such director, by reason of death, resignation or other cause, a membership advisory committee comprised of three (3) directors of the board shall create a list of eligible candidates (with not less than three (3) candidates on such list for each open director position) and shall submit such list to the board for consideration. When such list of eligible directors of the board is approved by resolution of the board, such list shall be submitted for consideration to the governing bodies of the municipalities in order of preference. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the board may permit any or all directors to participate in an annual, regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Section 13. Public notice of all meetings, whether annual, regular or special, of the board, shall be given in accordance with the open meetings law compiled in Tennessee Code Annotated, title 8, chapter 44.

Section 14. The officers of the board shall consist of a Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers as the board shall from time to time deem necessary or desirable. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person.

The Treasurer shall keep account of all money received and disbursed and shall deposit same with a bank or trust company which is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Section 18. Other officers shall perform such duties as shall be designated by the board.

Section 19. Each of such officers may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board.

Taxation - Historical Notes

Taxation

The following is a listing of acts pertaining to taxation in Blount County which are no longer effective. Also referenced below are acts which repeal prior law without providing new substantive provisions.

1. Acts of 1797, Chapter 7, authorized the Blount County tax levies for the years of 1798 and 1799, of not more than $.50 on each "free poll", $1.00 on each "black poll," $.50 on each one hundred acres of land, and $1.00 on each town lot. This act also authorized the levy of each stud horse a tax of not more than "one quarter of the price of the season of one mare."
2. Private Acts of 1911, Chapter 71, authorized a special tax levy to be used to meet payments due on any bona fide accumulated outstanding liabilities of the county, which had been necessarily accrued in preceding years.
3. Private Acts of 1917, Chapter 632, authorized a special tax levy of not more than $.20 on each $100 for grading, macadamizing, and improving the public roads in Blount County.
4. Private Acts of 1919, Chapter 766, authorized a special tax levy in Blount, Loudon and Roane counties of not more than $.20 per $100 assessed valuation for improving roads in those counties, and connecting them with each other, to form a more uniform road system.
5. Private Acts of 1977, Chapter 103, repealed Acts of 1909, Chapter 73, which was the legal authority for the counties, whose 1900 population or subsequent population was no less than 60,000 and no more than 100,000, to levy a general property tax whose proceeds would be used to maintain free public libraries in their respective counties. Blount County was among those affected by this law but according to our information at the time of these updated issues of private acts the county court of Blount County had not acted upon this act, thus rendering the same of no effect until the court did approve of it.
6. Private Acts of 1982, Chapter 360, would have amended Private Acts of 1979, Chapter 102, by levying a privilege tax of 5% on hotel or campground by a transient, however, this act was found unconstitutional by the attorney general of the state.
7. Private Acts of 1988, Chapter 169, would have amended Private Acts of 1979, Chapter 102, printed herein, but was not ratified locally and therefore never became law.

Assessor of Property

The following acts were superseded, repealed or failed to win local ratification, but they are listed here as a reference to laws which once affected the Blount County Assessor. Also referenced below are acts which repeal prior law without providing new substantive provisions.

1. Public Acts of 1857-58, Chapter 40, allowed Spencer Henry, the tax collector of Blount County, the further time of one year to collect the railroad taxes due for the years 1855 and 1856.

2. Public Acts of 1857-58, Chapter 65, authorized the county court of Blount County to levy one-fourth in amount of the state tax upon privileges, merchants and druggists.
3. Private Acts of 1859-60, Chapter 51, was another act for the relief of Spencer Henry, this one allowing him to receive $70.61 for taxes in 1856 and 1857 which had been wrongfully paid over to the comptroller.
4. Private Acts of 1919, Chapter 522, provided that the tax levied and collected under Public Acts of 1899, Chapter 279, entitled, "An Act to empower the County Courts to provide for establishing County High Schools to levy taxes and make appropriations for their support; to appoint County Boards of Education for managing them," in Blount County be apportioned so that any municipal corporation within the county shall receive a pro rata of said tax
5. Private Acts of 1921, Chapter 65, authorized the quarterly county court to fix the annual salary of the tax assessor, at an amount of not more than $2,500.
6. Private Acts of 1923, Chapter 576, also authorized the Blount County Quarterly County Court to set the annual salary of the tax assessor, at an amount of not more than $3,200.
7. Private Acts of 1923, Chapter 676, created the office of delinquent poll tax collector for Blount County.
8. Private Acts of 1925, Chapter 163, as amended by Private Acts of 1929, Chapter 174, Private Acts of 1933, Chapters 265 and 546, Private Acts of 1935, Chapter 153, Private Acts of 1939, Chapter 307, Private Acts of 1943, Chapter 182, Private Acts of 1951, Chapter 705, Private Acts of 1957, Chapters 290 and 341, relative to the compensation of the assessor of property and the employment and salaries of deputy tax assessors. These private acts have been superseded by the general law codified at T.C.A. § 67-1-501 et seq.
9. Private Acts of 1929, Chapter 174, was an amendment to Private Acts of 1925, Chapter 163, which provided that the tax assessor could appoint additional deputies, but the total amount of compensation for those additional deputies could not exceed $1,000 annually. This amendatory act was itself amended by Private Acts of 1933, Chapter 265, which reduced the total amount to be expended annually on deputy tax assessors' salaries to $600. Both of these acts were repealed by Private Acts of 1933, Chapter 885.
10. Private Acts of 1961, Chapter 322, was an attempt to require all owners of real property to report to the assessor of property any construction or remodeling project of more than $1,000 within ninety days after completion of the project or occupancy of the building. This act was not ratified by the quarterly county court and never became an operative law.
