Such assistants or employees are only appointed if funds are appropriated and made available for their monthly salaries, allowances and/or compensation. The Director and other employees shall be appointed from lists of eligible persons established through examinations conducted by the Juvenile Court Commission. Such examination shall have reference to education, previous experience, ability, character, and aptitude for the work to which they are assigned. An employee of the Court may be removed, discharged, reduced in pay or position upon the order of the Judges.

SECTION 6. That the Director under the general supervision of the Judge shall organize, direct and develop the administrative work of the Court, including the social, financial and clerical work, and shall perform such other duties as the Judge may direct. The technical and professional employees shall have charge of such cases and other work assigned to them for investigation or treatment and shall perform all such other duties as may be assigned to them by the Director.

SECTION 7. That whenever any person informs the Court that a child is within the purview of this Act, the Court shall make preliminary inquiry to determine whether the interest of the public or the child requires that further action be taken. Whereupon, the Court may make such informal adjustment as is practical without petition or may authorize a petition to be filed by any person.

The proceedings shall be entitled "In the Matter of _____, a Child under Seventeen Years of Age." The petition shall be verified and may be upon information and belief. It shall set forth plainly:

- (1) The facts which bring the child within the purview of this Act;
- (2) The name, age and residence of the child;
- (3) The name and residence of the parents, if known;
- (4) The name and residence of the legal guardian, if it be known;
- (5) Of the person or persons having custody and control of the child; and,
- (6) The nearest known relative if no parent or guardian can be found. If any of these facts herein required are not known by the petitioner, the petition shall so state.

SECTION 8. That after a petition shall have been filed and after such further investigation as the Court may direct, unless the parties hereinafter named will voluntarily appear, the Court shall issue a summons reciting briefly the substance of the petition, and requiring the person or persons who have custody or control of the child to appear and personally bring the child before the Court at the time and place stated. If the person so summoned be other than the parent or guardian, both shall also be notified of the pendency of the case and of the time and place appointed, by personal service before the hearing, except as hereinafter provided. Summons may be issued requiring the appearance of any other person whose presence in the opinion of the Judge is necessary. To the end that all petitions, process, orders, subpoenas and notices may be executed or served, the Chief Administrative Officer and/or any regularly appointed officer or employee of the Court, or any peace officer of Sullivan County is empowered and authorized to serve such notice, summons, order or decree of the Court, within the confines of Sullivan County, but no charge for making such service will be made; however, such officer and employee will be entitled to receive not in excess of seven (7c) cents per mile for travel in making such service, the same to be approved by the Judge of this Court. If it appears that the child is in such condition or surroundings that his welfare requires immediate custody by the Court, the same shall be ordered by endorsement upon the summons and the officer serving same shall at once take the child into custody.

SECTION 9. That the Court shall have all powers of Courts now established in Tennessee to bring any person before the Court and by proper process to punish those who refuse to obey the lawful orders and to punish by summary procedure those who are guilty of contempt, as the same is now defined by law, and such contempt is in the presence of the Court. The Court shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses and others whose presence in court is necessary, and to enforce its lawful orders, judgments, and decrees, the Court shall have all power and authority to issue writs of attachment and other process to bring such persons before the Court. This character of service will not be made by any officer or employee of this Court, but will be served and executed by the Sheriff of Sullivan County, or a duly qualified deputy or constable and for such service said officer will be entitled to receive fees as are now provided by law.

SECTION 10. That whenever a child is taken into custody, unless it is impractical or inadvisable or has been otherwise ordered by the Court, he or she shall be released to the custody of the parent, guardian or other person designated by the Court. Upon the written promise of such person, the child will be before the Court at such time fixed by order. If not so released, such child shall be taken immediately to the Court or to the place of detention designated by the Court. Pending further disposition of the case, a child whose custody has been assumed by the Court may be released in such manner as the Court by order may direct, or may be detained in such place as shall be designated by the Court, subject to further order. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as forbidding any peace officer from immediately taking into custody any child who is found violating any law of the State or ordinance of a municipality within Sullivan County. In every case an officer taking a child into custody shall immediately report the fact to the Court and the case shall then proceed as provided by this Act.

SECTION 11. That all cases of children shall be heard separately from the trial of cases against adults and without a jury. The hearings may be conducted in informal manner, to either be in public or in private, and may be adjourned from time to time. Stenographic notes or other transcripts of the hearing shall be required only if the Court so ordered. Nothing herein shall preclude the parent, guardian or attorney regularly employed or appointed, to be present at any hearing before the Court.

SECTION 12. That if the Court shall find that the child is within the purview of the Act, it shall so decree, and may by order duly proceed as follows:

- (1) place the child on probation or under supervision of a suitable person upon such condition as the Court shall determine;
- (2) commit the child to the custody of the parent or to the guardianship of a public or private institution or agency authorized to care for children or to place them in family homes. In committing the child to a private institution or agency, the Court shall select one that is approved by the Juvenile Court Commission;
- (3) order such other care and treatment as the Court may deem to be for the best interest of the child.

The Court may dismiss the petition or otherwise terminate its jurisdiction at any time for good cause shown. Whenever the Court shall commit a child to any institution or agency, it shall transmit with the order of commitment a summary of its information concerning the child and such institution or agency shall give to the Court such information concerning such child as the Court may from time to time require.

SECTION 13. That any decree or order of the Court may be modified at any time.

SECTION 14. That the Court may cause any person or child to be within its jurisdiction to be examined by a physician or physicians, or such other persons as the Court may direct.

SECTION 15. That all expenses incurred in complying with the provisions of this Act shall be within the budget established and approved as provided by law by the Quarterly County Court of Sullivan County. No obligation will be incurred on the part of Sullivan County for the maintenance of the Court, the salary of the Judge or any officer or employee thereof, unless funds are made available by the Quarterly County Court of Sullivan County; however, should the municipalities of Kingsport and Bristol appropriate funds for the expenses and/or operation of this Court, such funds may be used together with any voluntary contribution of any person, firm, charitable institution or society to defray the expense of the Court, including the payment of salaries of a Judge or any officer or employee of the Court. In the event such funds are made available by the municipality of Kingsport, Bristol or any other person or institution, the same shall be deposited with the Trustee of Sullivan County and disbursed as provided herein in accordance with all statutes, providing for the disbursement of other county funds.

SEC. 16. That the Court shall keep records of all cases brought before it. Such records shall be open to inspection only by the order of the Court to persons having legitimate interest therein. The Court shall devise and cause to be printed such forms for social and legal records and such other papers as may be required. The County Court Clerk shall establish at Blountville, Bristol and Kingsport such books, files, etc., as necessary to keep and preserve all of the records of the Court.

SECTION 17. That appeals from the judgment and decrees may be taken as now provided by Laws.

SECTION 18. That if for any reason any word, clause, paragraph or section of this Act shall be held unconstitutional, it shall not invalidate the effect of the remainder of said Act.

SECTION 19. That this Act take effect from and after the first Monday in September, 1951, the public welfare requiring it. Passed: March 6, 1951.
