The value of any alteration must exceed the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) before a permit shall be required. All sums collected from the fees shall be paid to the General Fund of Robertson County.

After issuance of the building permit, the Building Commissioner shall transmit a copy of it to the Robertson County Assessor of Property, provided however, that no new or additional property tax shall be assessed against such premises unless or until the same are completed to the extent that they are habitable or may be put to use.

SECTION 2. This act shall apply to the setting of mobile homes or any other kind of sectional or modular housing units, and the fact that one unit is charged for another on the same site shall not exclude the unit from the provisions of this act.

This act shall not apply to the erection, construction, reconstruction, or alteration of buildings or other structures in cities requiring permits of the same nor within official planning regions duly established under Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 13-202 and Tennessee Code Annotated, Sections 13-711 through 17-713, provided copies of such permits are made available to the building commissioner at regular monthly intervals.

SECTION 4. Robertson County is empowered to enjoin any one from proceeding with any construction until the terms of this act are complied with, and the County Attorney shall institute injunctive proceedings upon the request of the Building Commissioner and the Robertson County Planning Commission.

SECTION 5. Public or private utilities shall not furnish any service to any person or persons desiring to erect or have erected, constructed or reconstructed, any building or structure in Robertson County without being presented with a properly executed building permit.

SECTION 6. Violations of the provisions of this act shall be punishable, upon conviction thereof, by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00), and each day the violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

SECTION 7. Chapter 31 of the Private Acts of 1967 is repealed.

SECTION 8. This act shall have no effect unless it is approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the County Commission of Robertson County on or before the next regular meeting of such court occurring more than thirty (30) days after its approval by the Chief Executive of this state. Its approval or nonapproval shall be proclaimed by the presiding officer of the County Commission of Robertson County and shall be certified by him to the Secretary of State.
